

The Newfoundland and Labrador Library Association

Newfoundland and Labrador Library Association Conference 2005
"Libraries in Motion"
May 5-6, 2005

May 5, 2004

Location: Basilica of John the Baptist Museum ,
St. John's
Time: 7:00 p.m.

The Basilica Museum is housed in the former Basilica Residence, originally burnt in 1856. At that time the Museum space was conceived as a Public Library. As such the Basilica Museum represents a significant milestone in the history of Libraries in the province. The Archivist of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of St. Johns, Larry Dohey, will be on hand to do a short presentation on the history of the Basilica Museum and Library and to answer questions about items which will be on display.

Wine and munchies will be available.

May 6, 2004

Location: Science Building (Campus Map - Building 21),
1st floor, S2109 - Memorial University of Newfoundland,
St. John's

Please note: Parking for the day is available next to the Music Building, lot 15B
